Bays the New York Observer (second notice):—We are not surprised at the great popularity of this book; it is so full of quaint, but excellent humor, shooting the follies of common life, and hitting off evils which infest religious societies as well as the community, that everybody loves to read the Papers, though much that is in them comes home to number one.

NED BUNTLINE'S OWN.—THIS HIGHLY POPULAR paper is again in the field, its publication having been postponed in consequence of indisposition. The public can rest assured it will now be issued weekly, as new arrangements have been entered into which secures its permanency, and the publishers are determined to make it second to no paper in the country for variety, torce, and its devotedness to Americanism. Net will still wisted his pen in defence of the rights of American men and measures—opposing every ism but pure, unadulterated Americanism. The next number will be issued on Thursday, February 7, and will contain, besides its usual variety, two pages of that intensely interesting that particular the transfer of the particular of the particula its usual variety, two pages of that intensely interesting tale of the Jesuit Lipe Bunters: A Story of Wrongs and persecutions, Synke Bunthing.

This story is full of incident, laring bare the deep plottings of the Jesuits, and their bloodthirstness in hunting men to death whom they think arrayed against their interests and designs. This is the very best production of the auther, and is not surpased by any tale now in course of publication.

The following number of Ned's Own will contain, besides the Jesuit Life Binters, a new Tale, by J. F. Smith, one of the most popular writers of the day, and author of "Maska and Faces," "Minais Gray," "Harry Ashton," &c., the Soldier of Fortune, entitled DEKY LARLETON; OR, LESSONS OF LIFE, which will be received in numbers on the arrival of each European steamer. This story is in the author's very best style, equaliting any of his fermer efforts.
